

MIA 2023

Co-Production Market and Pitching Forum

Structure and Rules

MIA, International Audiovisual Market, is a market event based in Italy at its ninth edition in 2023 from October 9th to 13th. MIA is widely recognized as an effective market platform where the international industry can find real partnering and financing opportunities for projects in development.

MIA 2023 Co-production Market & Pitching Forums are open to all audiovisual genres and formats, intended for theatrical distribution, television broadcasting and digital streaming. The market aims to facilitate, encourage and accelerate new business opportunities for the development and creation of new content on an international level.

The Co-production Market & Pitching Forum will select about 50 projects from all over the world, presented in Film, Drama, Doc, and Animation categories.

Every division hosts a very specific international content market, featuring tailored activities designed to find financial and producing partners, through international co-production deals. The Pitching Forum & Co-production Market is divided in the following slates:

1. Animation (for animation feature-length films intended for theatrical release or digital streaming + animation series intended for TV and digital streaming + TV specials)
2. Doc (for documentary feature-length films intended for theatrical release or digital streaming + docuseries intended for TV and digital streaming)
3. Drama (for episodic scripted shows, mini-series and series, intended for TV and digital streaming)
4. Film (for fiction feature-length films intended for theatrical release or digital streaming)

Specific Rules and Regulations are available for each category.

Co-Production Market & Pitching Forum General Structure

The MIA Co-production Market and Pitching Forum 2023 is articulated in:

1. Dedicated pitching sessions designed to present the selected projects and find the right financial partners;
2. One-on-one meetings (pre-scheduled and scheduled on the spot) ensuing the forums' sessions.

The Selection Committees, one for each division, are composed of top industry experts, who will review and evaluate all the submitted projects.

MIA asks to evaluate the following criteria and to take into consideration MIA values in order to fully achieve the freedom of artistic expression; to represent cultural diversity and cooperation; to foster creativity, and nurture talent; to promote environmentally sustainable practices in audiovisual production.

Diversity and Inclusion Policy

MIA is committed to promoting diversity, inclusion, and gender equality in its activities and in the whole audiovisual industry. This is in line with the principles of equality and cultural diversity and the need to ensure that the industry and the content on offer are representatives of society.

For MIA Co-Production Market, diversity and inclusion can be defined as equal on-screen and off-screen representation of diversity in society and equal representation of diversity and inclusion in the stories presented among the Co-Production Market and Pitching Forum categories.

Evaluation Criteria

Each selection committee member is asked to evaluate the following criteria:

- Original and innovative concept
- Storytelling quality
- Narrative arch/key characters journey
- Potential for local production
- Potential for international production
- European Co-Production potential
- Artistic/Design value for animation
- Potential for commercial affairs
- Value of format rights/format potential
- Production value
- Track record of production company
- Pitch quality
- Gender balance (storyline)
- Diversity and inclusion potential (storyline)
- Gender/minority representation (creative/artistic team)
- Eco-production evaluation for the project (sustainability plans)

Once a project has been selected, at least one representative must be present during the days of the MIA Co-production Market. Attending the public pitching sessions and the one-to-one meetings is mandatory.

During MIA, the selected projects are presented by their producers/directors/authors (or by any other partner and delegate nominee by the right holders) to an audience of potential financial partners, including broadcasters and networks, producers, international sales and distributors, private and public funds, digital platforms, in specific open pitching sessions devoted to each category.

The official selection will be unveiled by September 2023.

Projects Submission

The submission of a project implies the unconditional acceptance of the present rules and regulations as well as the acceptance of all decisions taken by the Selection Committee, which are final.

By applying, producers are also agreeing to be available for the full days of 9th to 13th October 2023.

The signature on the filled entry form is considered as proof that the signatory acknowledges and freely accepts all rules, regulations, and procedures and all the committee decisions regarding the selection of the projects.

If the project is selected, the signatory formally commits themselves to present the project in MIA 2023; declares themselves as the sole and exclusive owner of all the rights related to the project, or guarantees that they have full permissions granted by all rights holders, to participate to MIA and therefore entitled to submit it to the market; guarantees that the submitted project does not infringe the rights of any third party.

By signing the entry form the right holder agrees to indemnify and hold harmless MIA of and from any and all claims, liabilities, demands, damages, debts, costs, expenses, lawsuits, or judgments of any nature. In case the property of one project is held by multiple rights owners, the entry form must be signed by all of them.

Submission deadline: July 7th 2023 5pm CET

DRAMA CO-PRODUCTION MARKET & PITCHING FORUM 2023

Rules and Procedures

The Drama Co-Production Market and Pitching Forum is open to scripted content intended for theatrical distribution, television broadcasting and digital streaming. The market aims to facilitate, encourage, and accelerate new business opportunities for the development and creation of new content on an international level. The event and its activities are designed for producers, broadcasters, distributors, to get commissioning, financing and co-producing partners and explores the essential elements of successful scripted content.

1. Eligibility Criteria

Eligible projects for the Drama Pitching Forum must be international original projects of outstanding artistic value with potential TX on linear broadcasting and digital streaming.

All genres are accepted. Each series project submitted must meet the following definition of eligibility requirements:

- A production in which theme, storyline, and main characters are presented under the same title.
- The story develops in at least 4 episodes, where the average episode running time shall be up to sixty-five (65) minutes.
- The project generally intends, or has the potential, to continue the storyline into the next broadcast season or to be circumscribed, in the case of Limites Series and Anthology Series, with a distinct beginning, middle, and end, a finite number of episodes, generally between one (1) and twelve (12). For Anthology and Limited Series the storyline is resolved at the end of the season.

Eligible Projects must adhere to the following criteria:

1. Entries must be accompanied by a provisional budget and a project bible.
2. Submitted projects can be at different stages of development, but they must not have started shooting before the 2023 edition of MIA.
3. Projects must be issued by producers (who hold the rights to pitch the show) seeking international partners and/or funding. Producers must have proven experience (at least a series or movie already produced).
4. Only the first season of a scripted series will be admitted.
5. The selection is open to: Original concepts, adaptations, and remakes.
6. Project must not have been presented in a public pitching session before MIA 2023.
7. A broadcaster/streaming platform attached is a plus, but not mandatory.
8. Only submissions written in English will be accepted.

Each production company can submit up to two projects to the Drama Co-Production Market and Pitching Forum, knowing that only the highest scoring project will be admitted to the final selection.

Please bear in mind that projects of a blatantly pornographic nature, advocating violence, inciting to any form of racism and/or openly inciting to violating human rights are not eligible.

2. Submission Procedures

Submitting a project is free of charge. To be considered for pre-selection, projects must be entered within July 7th 2023 by 5pm CET, using the registration form available HERE.

All the required documents must be provided before the deadline and only fully completed submissions will be admitted to the next steps of the selection process.

The entry form duly filled in all its parts and signed must be sent via email to:

Any other English-language material that may contribute to a better understanding of the project is highly recommended. Incomplete submissions will not be taken into consideration.

All submitted materials are used for pre-selection and selection purposes only and stored in the MIA archives. The materials will not be returned. In the event the project is invited to attend MIA, the provided materials/info will be used to update the MIA website, the Book of Projects, the MIA Digital

Platform and for promotional purposes within our press, pr and publicity operations. Accepted file formats for upload: DOC - DOCX - PDF - JPG - GIF (MAX upload file size : 10MB)

4. Selection

The MIA team thoroughly verifies that the submitted projects correctly fulfill all criteria for eligibility and that the submissions include all the materials required by our rules and regulations.

The Selection Committee, composed of top industry experts, will review all the projects shortlisted accessing all available information and files. The Selection Committee selects the final projects, taking into consideration the viability and quality of the plans as well as the track record/body of work of the producers and the authors/creators.

Once the project is selected, the submitters formally commit themselves to present the project at MIA 2023; declaring to be the sole and exclusive owner of all the rights related to the project, and therefore entitled to participate to the MIA co-production market, or guaranteeing that as co-producers they have full permissions granted by all the rights holders to participate to MIA. The signatory will be responsible should any infringement of a third party rights occur.

The list of selected projects will be announced by September 2023.

5. Participation

The Drama Pitching Forum will take place during the MIA Market dates (October 9th to 13th, 2023). Once a project has been selected, at least one representative must be available to represent the project at the public pitch and the meeting sessions.

One-on-one pre-scheduled meetings will be set up prior and ensuing the pitching sessions. A dedicated team will host and facilitate the meetings with the project representatives. Meetings will be scheduled upon request. Participation guidelines will be sent to each project presenter. For further info please contact: dramacopro@miamarket.it

6. Acceptance of the Rules

The submission of a project implies the unconditional acceptance of the MIA CO-PRODUCTION MARKET & PITCHING FORUM RULES as well as the acceptance of all decisions taken by the selection committee and/or the Event director which are final.

Finished projects sprung from the 2023 Drama Co-production Market & Pitching Forum's meetings should mention MIA and/or display its logo in their credits. Preferably, the following sentence should be mentioned in the credit list: "[title] has been presented at MIA". The MIA logo will be sent to the makers or editors upon request.
